

JAMMIN' IN JULY 2007

MUSIC FESTIVAL

SATURDAY JULY 14th, 5:00pm - 11:00pm
(Gates open at 4:30)

BLACK BOTTOM BISCUITS (5:00-5:35) (Sumter)

www.blackbottombiscuits.com

Formed in the midlands in 2002, the Black Bottom Biscuits play an ever changing mix of bluegrass, country and rock'n roll. Their original songs, combined with an energetic stage presence, have led to performances at the Sumter Opera House and in-studio performances on ETV radio's Walter Edgar's Journal. They have released 2 CD's, Moonshiner's Daughter (2003) and Too Many Cars In My Back Yard (2005).

If you're a fan of homespun bluegrass, traditional country, old-time music, or any of the three generations of Hank Williams', the Black Bottom Biscuits probably have a song you'll enjoy. On their 2003 Moonshiner's Daughter CD, the band comes across as an amiable, pickin' and grinnin', country-fried good time."

BAKERS MOON (5:45-6:15) (Camden) www.bakersmoon.com

With it's focus on live studio recording, Bakers Moon is an original instrumental trio who's goal is to score film soundtracks. Bakers Moon's structured improvisational sound is influenced by many styles of music and life experiences, it's central influence is the percussive jazz/rock of Ginger Baker. New 2007 CD "Speak No Evil" Danny Riddick (drums), Joe Fohner (guitar) and Trey McCorkle (bass).

THE FOSSIL RECORD (6:30-7:00) (Columbia)

www.thefossilrecords.com

Based around the songwriting & vocals of Chris Compton, The Fossil Record's sound blends folk and rock with the hooks and energy of 70's and 80's pop. RELIX magazine described Compton's songwriting as "rich lyrical excursions with a slight alterative twist". The Fossil Record also features Scott Hilton (drums), Casey Hammett (bass) and Stephen Williams (guitar).

WITHOUT A PADDLE (7:15-7:45) (Camden)

Local favorites playing an interesting mix of classic and contemporary rock featuring Jim Hayes (guitar & vocals), Kenny Hayes (guitar), Vel Forester (bass & vocals) and David Franklin (drums & vocals)

PHD (8:00-8:35) (Columbia/Camden)

A new trio featuring veterens of the midlands music scene. Paul Russo (bass), Buddy Harre (drums) and Rusty Davis (guitar & vocals). They hold their PHD in classic rock & blues. "For this show David Middleton will be featured on drums."

TAYLOR HAYES (8:45-9:15) (Winnsboro/Camden)

A new duo playing an eclectic blend of folk/rock including many acoustic versions of non-traditional acoustic songs, all based around strong vocal harmonies.

Featuring Susan Taylor (banjo, guitar & vocals) and Jim Hayes (guitar & vocals).

GEOFF ACHISON & THE SOULDIGGERS (9:30-10:45)

(Australia) www.geoffachison.com

Hailing from rural Victoria, Austrailia, Geoff Achison has forged an international career for himself performing throughout Austrailia, the UK and the USA. Performing Solo Acoustic or with his band "The Souldiggers", Geoff has built his reputation on his live performances. In 1995 he won the coveted "Albert King Award" at the International Blues Challenge in Memphis, Tenn. This landed Geoff an endorsement deal with Gibson Acoustic Guitars which led to a US national tour with the legendary Jorma Kaukonen & Hot

Tuna, which introduced him to many new fans. He is currently on tour in the UK thru June. Along with his appearance at Jammin In July, the USA leg of his tour will includes performances in Atlanta, Chicago and New York.

Along with Jorma Kaukonen & Hot Tuna, Geoff Achison has also performed with John Mayall, Joe Satriani, Elvin Bishop, John Mayer, Levon Helm, Hubert Sumlin, Tinsley Ellis and Tommy Emmanuel.

"One of the most gifted musicians to arrive on the scene.....His playing verges on the miraculous."
